

ANCC Medical Surgical Nursing Review Course for Certification

This two-day course is designed as an educational session to prepare participants for the American Nurses Credentialing Center Medical Surgical Nursing board certification exam.

Course Benefits:

This ANCC Medical Surgical Certification Review course provides continuing education contact hours, valuable study tips and information to be utilized in preparing for the certification exam. Domains of practice in this course include:

1. Assessment and Nursing Diagnosis
2. Planning and Outcomes Identification
3. Implementation and Evaluation
4. Professional Role

The ANCC Medical Surgical Nursing board certification is a competency-based examination that validates the clinical knowledge and skills of nurses in the medical-surgical speciality. In the unlikely event that the participant does not pass the exam, he/she may attend another ANA review course for free by contacting Livesemr@ana.org. This guarantee is for one year from the date of the review course.

For additional information, please contact Lisa King in the NSMC Center for Clinical and Professional Development at 978-354-3027 or lmking@partners.org.

This course has a pre-workshop activity that must be completed prior to the first day.

Approximately one week prior to the start of the workshop, all registrants will receive an email with instructions on how to complete pre-work. For anyone who registers within one week of the workshop, pre-work information will be included with the registration confirmation.

Please read/review the material provided and formulate ideas and questions to be discussed in the live review course. Review the additional resource links provided within the handout, take notes and perform independent searches online as needed for an effective learning experience.

The pre-workshop activity includes:

1. Independent Study, Session 1—Professional Roles: Coordination of Care; Communication; Health Promotion and Maintenance; Patient Educations (60 min.)
2. Independent Study, Session 2—Delivery of Care; Ethical Issues in Care; Legal Issues.

This course is offered as a collaborative effort of the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the Center for Clinical and Professional Development at North Shore Medical Center.
